1966 CORSAIR

*Briarwood High School
East Point, Georgia*

The name Corsair was first brought to the attention of the annual staff by Diane English. It quickly won the delight and approval of the staff due to its close link with the Buccaneers. Corsair is a French word used to classify the type vessel sailed by the Buccaneers.

A yearbook is to depict the happenings of a school year. This Corsair shows where the sailing has been smooth and where the waters have been rough, and we hope that you, the crew, will agree with us that it has all been worthwhile and splashed with waves of fun.

Sincerely,

Dedication

This first yearbook is thoughtfully dedicated to the Spirit of Briarwood High School; a Spirit that has touched every realm of our school life.

Our Spirit is a free one which encourages individual growth. Yet as individuals have contributed to our school, Briarwood has developed into a separate and distinct entity. With Spirit, we claim our name as Buccaneers; we proudly wear our colors of black, white, and gold; we strive to fulfill our motto, and we confidently bear our crest before the world.

Progress is the substance on which our Spirit thrives. Whether in athletic achievement, scholastic success, or social endeavors, the Buccaneer Spirit has caused the accomplishment of many valuable things. Every area of our lives has been enriched by being a part of Briarwood!

This volume, then, is not only dedicated to our past and present, but to the future growth of our Spirit as the Briarwood Buccaneers. May we grow in tradition and school pride to the fullest limit of the bright promise which belongs to us. These limits stretch into infinity, for "we have promises to keep and miles to go before we sleep."

ADMINISTRATION

MR. MAX E. McBRAYER

We proudly salute our principal

From the beginning of Briarwood's history, Mr. McBrayer has been admired and honored by all Buccaneers because of his loyal dedication. His enthusiasm and school spirit have been contagious. His friendly smile and words of wisdom have been an inspiration to each student. But most of all, he has set an example that proves that life cheats no man who gives of himself.

MR. BOYD, Assistant Administrator

Administration

MR. DUVALL, Counselor

MRS. BEATTY, Office Clerk

Miss Padgett, department head, and Miss McKellar converse on a literary passage.

The Language Art department has enriched the minds of the Briarwood students in literature as well as in grammar. Many students are for the first time engaging in one of the Romance languages or the Classic Latin.

Language Arts

Mrs. James

Mrs. Speir, and Miss Powell demonstrate the audio lingual approach.

Mrs. Ausband in "Latin A-Go-Go"

Miss Goode, department head

Science Department . . .

explores everything from nature's wonders to the inventions of man,

Mrs. Baker introducing her students to the skeletal system.

Miss Toller

Miss Bullen and Mr. Light solve for "x."

Math Department

Mr. Clark, head of the department, anxiously awaits his eager students.

Business Education

Mrs. Wells of Business Education points out typing techniques.

Mrs. Little, department head, and Mr. Cason chat in adjoining rooms.

Mr. Lewis,
a renowned weaver and department head.

The Fine Arts . . . man's needs for expression

Mr. Knight has done an exceptional job with the entire music department. In December Mr. Knight directed a joint band, string, and chorus music program before the student body. The band and chorus have also taken part in a music festival where they had to compete with longer established school groups.
